

April 2, 2009

Dear Lower Manhattan Community Member:

At approximately 2:45 AM this morning there was an electrical incident with a power distribution box. Personnel were evacuated from the building and the FDNY was notified and responded immediately. The cause of the incident is being investigated.